No items on which no progress has been made.

13. Systematic reviews since the previous meeting

No systematic reviews have been circulated.

ISO/TC 12, Quantities and units14. Items for future work

There was a brief discussion. For the time being there is more work in IEC/TC 25 and the delegations were encouraged to find experts to IEC/TC 25/JWG 2 to help progress the work allocated to that committee; IEC 80000-15, Logarithmic quantities and related units; IEC 80000-16, Printing and writing rules; IEC 80000-17, Time dependency.

ISO/TC 12 also decides to ask Dr Knopf to explore ISO/TC 12's possible future role in producing standards for the machine readability of quantities, units, and measurement results, by the next meeting. See resolution 163.

15. Requirements concerning a subsequent meeting

Decides to accept the kind offer from SIS to host the next meeting of ISO/TC 12 in Stockholm, Sweden, on Thursday 2023-05-25. The mode of the meeting will be decided nearer to the time of the meeting, see resolution 164.

16. Any other business

Revision of ISO/IEC Directives Part 2

When ISO 80000-1 has been published there will be a need to update the rules in ISO/IEC Directives part 2 to ensure that the rules for writing standards comply with ISO 80000-1. The secretariat will contact ISO/CS on this matter.

17. Approval of resolutions

The resolutions were reviewed and accepted, see N1456.

18. Closure of the meeting (16:00 CEST)

Prof. Grimvall thanked the delegates for their active participation and wished them welcome to Stockholm in May 2023. Thereafter he closed the meeting.
